3. Identify the owners of City Café.

Jimmy Tselios.

4. Identify each person with whom you have had any communications during the period of time from the date of the Assignment to the present with respect to subleasing the Subject Property, other than City Café.

Jenny (last name unknown), Chinese restaurant; William Ward, owner of Ward's Accessories; Spencer Saunders; Steve Perry, Mexican restaurant; Duff's Seafood; Tony (last name unknown), Chinese restaurant; David Potts (Aronov Realty), representing auto dealership client; Robert Long (Aronov Realty), representing a burger chain; Joey Travis; chef Chris Pasqual, Starlight Caterers; Melissa Billingsley, Mexican Restaurant; Cory Grant; Mike (last name unknown), American Food Country Buffet; Benh Yeoh, Chinese Buffet; Gus (last name unknown); Annie Park (Aronov Realty), representing two different Asian restaurant operators; Larry (last name unknown), former owner of Southern Pleasures Restaurant; Jenni (last name unknown), Peking Palace; Sonja Dallas, bar/club; Chalin (last name unknown), Thai restaurant; Ricky Evans, martini bar & bistro; Brian Tidwell, recording studio; Joey Travis, restaurant/neighborhood bar and grill; Roosevelt Daniel, western/country buffet; Eun (Annie) Park (Aronov Realty), Asian restaurant client; Deneen Pridget, eatery and hair salon combo; Robert McClendon, operates local Stockyard Café; Bernice Hernandez, Mexican restaurant; Gary Cook (Alfa Realty), represents Golden Corral; Full Moon Barbeque.

5. Identify each individual working for City Café, or its affiliates, with whom you have had communications.

Except for the initial meeting at the property with Jimmy Tselios and Andy Theodorakis, all communication and correspondence has been with Andy Theodorakis, Jimmy Tselios' representative.

6. Identify the full legal name of City Café (i.e., the legal entity to which MAC proposed to sublease the Subject Property).

An entity was to have been named for this operation. The operator has multiple locations and different operating entities.

7. Identify the state of incorporation or organization of the legal entity described in paragraph 6 just above.

See response to number 6.

8. Describe MAC's business, and each of the different lines of business in which it engages, if applicable.

MAC East, LLC is an Alabama limited liability company whose purpose relates to the ownership or management of real estate.

9. Has the Subject Property ever been occupied for business (whether yours or someone else's) from the date of the Assignment to the present?

There has been no other occupant since we acquired interest.

10. If the answer to the previous interrogatory was yes, please identify all such persons who have occupied the Subject Property for business during such period of time.

Not applicable.

11. Who is the individual or individuals who at any time has (or have) been primarily responsible for marketing or subleasing the Subject Property on MAC's behalf?

Matthew Coblentz.

12. Provide a listing of any other lawsuits that MAC has been involved in within the past five (5) years, whether as a plaintiff or defendant (including the forum of such suit).

None.

13. Identify the primary attorney, if any, who represented MAC in the preparation or negotiation of the Assignment.

Jeffrey W. Blitz.

14. Please state each and every fact which you claim supports the allegation in the complaint that “in 2005 MAC reached an agreement with City Café to sublease the Subject Property with the intention of operating a restaurant.”

Proposal to Sub-Lease was presented to, accepted and signed by City Café on April 18, 2005. Subsequently, a lease document was prepared and sent to City Café on May 6, 2005 for their initial review.

15. Please state each and every fact which you claim supports your allegation in the complaint that “the ownership of City Café is comprised of high-quality restaurant operators with an established track record.”

They have several existing successful restaurants in Georgia which is an indication of a proven track record as restaurant owners and operators. They have an attractive menu that we thought would be well-received in this area. Pictures of their existing locations appeared to be a nice environment. The financial statements showed good returns on the existing locations. Jimmy Tselios was willing to sign personally which was an indication that he was very committed to this deal. They were very diligent and responsive in the deal-making process.

16. Identify the individuals who were party to the communications referred to in paragraph 23 of the complaint.

Joan Surles and Donna Power.

17. Please state each and every fact which you claim supports your allegation in the complaint that Shoney's "intentionally interfered with the contractual relationship between Plaintiff and City Café."

Shoney's was aware of the existence of the contract and knew that City Café was an acceptable subtenant but nevertheless simply tried to force an additional payment—over and above what they obtained as part of the original sublease agreement—in exchange for its consent of a qualified tenant.

18. Please state each and every fact which you claim supports your allegation in the complaint that MAC "entered into a contractual relationship with City Café."

See documents produced herewith and mentioned above.

19. Please state each and every fact which you claim supports your allegation in the complaint that "the leases on the Subject Property allow the prevailing party to recover attorney's fees."

The leases speak for themselves.

20. Identify and describe in detail any and all logs, notes, memoranda, or other records produced, generated, kept, or maintained by you and pertaining in any way to your communications with Shoney's from January 1, 2001 to present.

Printed or handwritten correspondence kept in project file folders. Audio tape recording of voice mail message left by Donna Power for Joan Surles. Electronic versions of documents and emails. Individuals' note pads. Executive Staff Meeting Minutes (may contain proprietary info), correspondence "Read" files, ACT! contact management software records.

21. Identify and describe in detail any and all logs, notes, memoranda, or other records produced, generated, kept, or maintained by you and pertaining in any way to your communications with City Café from January 1, 2004 to present.

See response to number 20 above.

22. Identify and describe any and all logs, notes, memoranda, or other records produced, generated, kept, or maintained by you and pertaining in any way to any efforts to sublease the Property to City Café or to any other proposed subtenant.

See response to number 20 above.

23. Identify and describe each and every communication that you had with City Café, including its employees, owners, officers, directors, shareholders, partners, members, managers, agents or representatives.

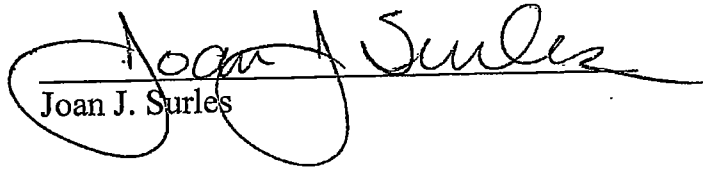

The only person that we communicated with from City Café was Andy Theodorakis (to our knowledge, a representative of the company). All of the conversations that we can remember are either logged into ACT or available by written correspondence in our file in the form of letters and faxes sent to Mr. Theodorakis.

24. Identify each person you expect to call as an expert witness at the trial of this case and the education and experience that you contend qualifies him or her as an expert.

No expert witness has been selected at this time. We will supplement the response to this interrogatory as soon as an expert witness has been retained.

25. Please state and describe the subject matter upon which each person named in response to the previous interrogatory is expected to testify at the trial of this case.

See response to number 24 above.
